Seaford Car Park

We all saw last weekend how our car park gets overwhelmed very quickly at Seaford on a sunny day. Since Covid our sleepy little town has been discovered as it was advertised on social media as 'Free Parking'. Sunday all roads leading to the beach were crammed. In 40 years of living in Seaford I have never seen it this bad.

Our car park is very inviting but to have cars parked all over the camping field is not acceptable. Members must be able to park at any time.

We need you all to help us with this one. We need the public to see the 'Private Property' sign on the gate and yes we need more signage. The gate code may be changing soon, we may have to change it often.

Initially we are asking you to:

Sundays / Wed evening / sailing week / sailing events – lock the gate and scramble the code

Other days – shut the gate and scramble the code

Parking in Seaford will only get worse as we go into the holiday season. We will have to watch this carefully.

All members should have the codes.

Please do not hand out the codes to members of the public who are locked in. Open the gate to let them out. This will prevent us from changing the codes too often.

It is up to us to lock / shut the gates

Members (Sailors) Pre-order System

Don't forget that you can pre-order a members special meal. There is limited choice with this meal.

1. Go to the bar to order asking for the members special and pay before sailing begins.
2. Collect your meal from the metal servery in the members area between the given times

Sunday 12:15 - 13:15

B/H 12:15 - 13:15

Sailing Week 12:15 - 13:15

Wednesdays 20:15 - 21:15

The Galley is telling us about food wastage at the moment as members are not ordering the pre-order meal. If we don't use it we are likely to lose it.

Talk by Jazz Turner at NSSC

We have had such demand that another talk has been arranged with Jazz. This time it will be open to the Sailability participants, to the public and to our members.

Friday 8th August 2025, 7pm for 7.30pm

We look forward to seeing you there.
