Thank you Terry for your contact with the RYA, for proposing the club last year for the RYA Active Club Award for 2024, for achieving the award for the club and finally organising the filming. We are all very proud to have been awarded the certificate which can be seen in the Seaford Clubhouse.

Please read on for the detail about the day from Terry and sign up please for the Laying Up Lunch, via Webcollect, which will follow on after the filming.

Filming by the RYA Sunday 26th October

Following NSSC's successful award last year for Active club of the year 2024, a film team from the RYA will be attending the club to make a documentary video about NSSC.

The plan for the day (weather permitting) is as follows:-

1000 Terry, Michelle & Carolyn will meet the film crew at Newhaven and go out on Ark to get some footage of racing on the sea.

1130 Return to Newhaven and visit Piddinghoe for some filming of facilities and if anyone is sailing, winging etc there maybe some filming.

1230 Arrive at Seaford to film facilities and conduct some interviews with key members.

1. Michelle Smith, Commodore and Terry Jones, former Commodore
2. Chris Turner. Carolyn Turner, Vice Commodore re Sailabilty
3. James Dandridge re Crowdfunding
4. Justin Attwood re the rebuild
5. Noel West, Sailing Sec, re RCY group.
6. Possibly some additional interviewees if they are available and time allows.

1330 Assembling for the laying up lunch

If you are likely to be sailing on the sea and around the club could you please fill out the disclaimer form which will go the RYA automatically. <https://www.cognitoforms.com/RYA2/RYAWaiverFormNewhavenOct2025>
